- The goods are returned within 7 days.

10. Out of Stock Items

Research Nutrition operates a back order system. Out of stock items will be back-ordered and advice given as to expected delivery date. Any back ordered items will be forwarded freight free as soon as they are available. If you do not wish to receive back-ordered items, please tick the box below.

Please do not place back-orders on this account

11. Supply Policy / Practitioner Disclaimer

Research Nutrition follows a script-only supply policy for some products. The following requirements must be met in order to obtain a Student Account and have access to 'practitioner-only' products and services, as well as any materials pertaining to them (such as technical manuals, product information, access to training seminars etc.).

- a) Products and testing services must be prescribed to patients by a fully qualified and practising health practitioner in the context of a private consultation.
- b) Under no circumstances should Research Nutrition's practitioner-only product range be visibly stored or displayed in a retail setting (inclusive of online sales).
- c) Research Nutrition reserves the right to remove products and refuse future sale when stored or sold inappropriately.
- d) Student Certification must be approved by Research Nutrition to qualify as a health practitioner.
- e) A Research Nutrition Student Account is valid for one year from the date the account is opened. After this date, a new Account Registration form (Practitioner or Student) must be completed.

I have read and agreed to the terms and conditions as set out on page's 2 and 3, and hereby declare all information supplied is true and correct.
